Susan D'Alessio Artist Biography

Susan D'Alessio is a plein air landscape painter from Long Island, New York. Susan transitioned from a career in textile design and art education to plein air painting, inspired by the diverse natural scenes of Long Island's East End.

She has exhibited widely for over 18 years, including solo and juried shows at venues such as The Gardiner Cottage Mill Gallery, The Lucore Gallery and The Salmagundi Club, and is a member of the American Society Marine Artists and artist member of The Salmagundi Club.

Susan has traveled extensively across the U.S. and participated in plein air events like Easels in Frederick and Paint Cuba, earning awards such as best representational painting at Guildhall. Her work is displayed in Sebonack Golf course and The Amagansett Country Club and has been featured in numerous exhibitions from 2007 to 2025 including Plein Air Peconic events and Watermill Museum shows. She has received media coverage in outlets like The East Hampton Star, Dans Paper cover artist and the New York Times.
