SPONSOR INFORMATION

25th Annual Totten Trot 5K Foot Race and Kids' Fun Run

Sunday, October 25, 2026
7:30 am check in/9:00 am start
Kids Fun Run 10:00 am

Bayside Historical Society will celebrate the milestone Silver Anniversary of its annual Totten Trot 5K Foot Race and Kids' Fun Run on Sunday, October 25, 2026. What began as a humble gathering of just 12 runners at Fort Totten Park has grown into a vibrant community event, bringing together more than 300 runners — along with their families and teams — for an unforgettable day.

The beautiful USATF-certified waterfront course winds through historic Fort Totten, traces the shores of Little Bay, and leads toward the iconic Throgs Neck Bridge, setting the stage for an inspiring finish.

The race is open to all levels of ability and will be timed and certified by Elite Feats. Goody bags and T-shirts will be given to runners in the main race; prizes will be awarded to overall winners and for Best Costume. Check-in is at 7:30 am, with race time at 9:00am. Participants can register on the BHS website or in person on the day of the event. Professional runners, casual runners, families and teams are welcome. Anyone can run in costume, but they are suggested for the Kids Fun Run, which starts at 10:00am. The kids' event is free and registration is in person before the race.

“The Totten Trot is such a fun day for all of us, whether taking part in the race or volunteering along the sidelines” said Carol Marian, BHS Board Member and Totten Trot Chair, “and the proceeds support the educational programs, events, lectures and workshops that Bayside Historical Society offers for children and adults in all of northeast Queens and the surrounding area.”
